JOIN US FOR THE OPENING OF THE 2018
COMMUNITY COLLEGE EXHIBITION PLATFORM
SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 17, 6 – 9PM
WOODBURY UNIVERSITY HOLLYWOOD OUTPOST.

With more than 2.1 million students on 114 campuses, the California Community College system is one of the largest in higher education in the United States. Southern California boasts a particularly strong community of architecture and interior architecture programs; PLATFORM highlights the work of community college students to showcase ideas on design, education and art. As a space to connect, the exhibition includes work from over ten community colleges through drawings, models, mockups, and photographs.
