Architectural Agonism

Urtzi Grau is an architect, Director of the Master of Architectural Research at UTS and co-founder of Fake Industries Architectural Agonism – an architectural office that provides architectural tools to mediate between citizens and institutions, the public sphere and disciplinary knowledge. The office has recently completed the Superphosphates! Masterplan in Cáceres and the OE House in Barcelona and is currently working on the Medellín Velodrome.

Grau graduated from the School of Architecture of Barcelona in 2000, was awarded Master of Science in Advanced Architectural Design by the Graduate School of Architecture Planning and Preservation, Columbia University (GSAPP) in 2004, and is currently completing his Ph.D. at Princeton University School of Architecture on the 1970's urban renewal of Barcelona. Grau has previously taught Cooper Union, Princeton University, Columbia University and Cornell University
