

Writing Placement & Sequence of Courses

Woodbury University does not require a Writing Placement Exam.

To complete your degree*, you must successfully pass or transfer in credits for the following Writing courses:

1. WRIT 113, First-Year Academic Writing
  - a. If you have successfully passed a first-year composition course with a “C” or better, submit your transcript so the Office of the Registrar can formally evaluate it.
  - b. If you have successfully passed either the AP Language and Composition or the AP Literature exam with a 3 or better, submit your AP scores.
2. WRIT 313, Advanced Academic Writing
  - a. If you have successfully passed a college level, upper division academic writing course with a “C” or better, submit your transcript so the Office of the Registrar can formally evaluate it.

* Professional Writing students will take more Writing courses.