Non-Discrimination Policy Security

Woodbury prohibits unlawful discrimination on the basis of race, religious creed, color, national origin, ancestry, physical disability, mental disability, legally protected medical condition, marital status, sex, age 40 or over, military or veteran status, sexual orientation, genetic information or any other bases protected by federal, state or local law.

Woodbury does not discriminate on the basis of sex in its educational programs or employment opportunities. Sexual harassment and sexual violence are types of sex discrimination. Other acts can also be forms of sex-based discrimination and are also prohibited whether sexually based or not and include dating violence, domestic violence and stalking.

Woodbury University is committed to providing an environment that is free of any form of discrimination or harassment so that all members of the community are treated at all times with dignity and respect. It is the University's policy, therefore, to prohibit all forms of such discrimination or harassment among the University faculty, students, staff and administration.
