

WOODBURY UNIVERSITY

Readmission Application

READMISSION POLICY:

Students who are absent from degree studies remain in active status for three semesters (excluding summer). If not enrolled by the fourth semester, a student must re-apply for admission to the university to re-establish degree status. Official transcripts of all college or university work must be submitted for evaluation upon reapplying. Transcripts will be assessed based on the catalog prerequisites and degree requirements in effect at the time of readmission and matriculation. For more information on undergraduate readmission application requirements and eligibility, please visit woodbury.edu/readmission. For information on graduate readmission application requirements and eligibility, please visit woodbury.edu/readmissiongrad.
